

Gynaecological Cancer in the Cancer Unit

Friday 25th November 2022

The Assembly Room, The Exchange, University of Birmingham,
3 Centenary Square, Birmingham B1 2DR

DRAFT Programme

0920	Welcome Mr Stephen Dobbs, BGCS President, Belfast City Hospital
0930	Day case TLH - Pathway Implementation Dr Alistair Ward, St Richard's Hospital, Chichester (University Hospital Sussex)
1000	Day case TLH - The operation and practical considerations Miss Beena Abdul, Oxford University Hospitals
1030	Meeting the 28 day faster diagnosis standard Mr John Renninson, Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital
1100	Setting up a one stop ovarian clinic Miss Radhika Vikram, West Hertfordshire NHS Trust
1130	Coffee
1150	Advances in the pathology of endometrial cancers Dr Raji Ganesan, Consultant Gynaecological Pathologist, Birmingham Women's Hospital
1220	Borderline tumours; follow up, completion surgery and HRT. The evidence (or not) Prof Ranjit Manchanda, St Bartholomew's Hospital Dr Michail Sideris, Queen Mary University, London
1250	Update on ATSM training Dr Niamh Haughey, St James's Hospital, Dublin
1320	Lunch
1400	Surgical considerations in the super morbidly obese; pre op, intra op, post op Mr Tim Duncan, Norfolk and Norwich University Hospital

1430	Anaesthetic considerations in the super morbidly obese; pre op, intra op, post op Dr Nick Reynolds
1500	The National Ovarian Cancer Audit; The data and Its Implications for Cancer Units Prof Sudha Sundar, Professor of Gynaecological Cancer, University of Birmingham
1530	How to get started with robotics in a cancer unit- the business case and beyond TBC
1600	Tea
1620	BGCS endometrial cancer guidelines – impact on Cancer Units Dr Sarah Harper, United Lincolnshire Hospitals
16:50	Review of meeting Ms Amy Keightley, BGCS Unit Lead Rep, Great Western Hospital
1700	Close

With thanks to Olympus for their generous sponsorship of this event

