

PelvEx London 2024

Programme

Welcome

On behalf of the PelvEx Collaborative, ACPGBI and UKPEN, we take great pleasure in welcoming you to London for the fifth international PelvEx Collaborative meeting.

In keeping with the spirit of PelvEx we hope you enjoy the varied programme delivered by an international faculty complemented by the very best hospitality London has to offer.

PelvEx continues to grow with more than 140 units across the globe, dedicated to improving outcomes for patients undergoing pelvic exenteration.
