

Job Title	Person Specifications	Role Description	Suggested time allocation
Gynaecological Genomics Clinical Lead	Must be hold professional registration e.g., GMC registered with licence to practice or NMC registration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coordinate and lead gynaecological genomics service • Ensure patient information leaflets, record of discussion and consent documentation available and updated accordingly. • Ensure adequate numbers of the MDT are appropriately trained to take consent for genomics testing and promote adequate time for this • Act as link between oncology, clinical genetics and gynaeoncology to promote best practice throughout the care pathway. • Record and interpret genomic testing results • Communicate results to patients or their representatives, oncology team and the wider MDT • Ensure promotion of genomics testing at any available point in the patient pathway • Ensure recording of genomics results in electronic patient record as well as in MDT outcome 	4 hours per week
Gynaecological Genomics Administrative Support Role	Band 2 or above	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Collate a database of genomics results for audit purposes • Transcribe genomics results letters and send out • Upload genomics results to electronic patient record 	1 hour per week